Financial Planning

Work with a CFP® Professional at John Hancock Advice to review your current situation, discuss your future goals, and build a personalized plan to achieve them. Regardless of your situation, we’ll build you a plan that includes analysis and recommendations based on exactly what you need.

Comprehensive Plan: $999*

*Additional costs may apply depending on individual situations

A comprehensive financial plan includes a thorough analysis of your entire financial picture. Your CFP® Professional will look at all aspects of your life, your short and long-term goals, and then build a holistic plan to help you achieve them. Your plan will serve as a roadmap to help you stay on track and make important financial decisions down the line.

A comprehensive plan is great for people who have a more complex situation because it covers all areas of your finances, including but not limited to:

- Retirement Planning
- Education Planning
- Tax Management
- General Estate Management
- Budgeting
- Cash-Flow and Debt Management
- Insurance Review
- Investments
- Planning for Life Events
- Special Needs and Handicap Planning

Custom Plan: $150/hour*

*Total cost will depend on the topic(s) covered and be agreed upon before the plan is built.

A custom financial plan covers certain areas of your financial situation based on specific goals you need help planning for. Your CFP® Professional will help you prioritize your goals so you can tackle those most important to you now and focus on other, lower-priority ones sometime in the future.

A custom plan is great for people who feel pretty good about their overall situation but are looking for clarity and guidance in a particular area. Each plan is individually tailored, but some of the most common goals we build custom plans for include:

- Retiring Comfortably
- Paying off Debt
- Getting Married
- Affording College
- Starting a Family
- Buying a Home
- Changing Careers
- Building a Budget

If your situation changes, you can update your plan annually for a cost of $250. This includes a meeting with your CFP® to review your situation and update your information, and an updated version of your plan with new recommendations based on what’s changed.

It all starts with a conversation.

Once we understand your needs, we can discuss whether a Comprehensive Plan or Custom Plan is right for you.
